CALIFORNIA GOSSIP.

In the San Francisco Chronicle of last Monday Bunny Benjamin discourses in the following fashion concerning turf matters of current interest:

"The black and red Maltese cross of 'Lucky' Baldwin has been known to the American turf for twenty years. During this period he has captured many of the classic races with horses that first saw the light of day at the far-famed Santa Anita ranch. The stable has not been very formidable since Rey el Santa Anita won the great American Derby in 1894, but 'Lucky' Baldwin, now a gray veteran, is planning an elaborate Eastern campaign for the season of 1902. Although he has won no less than four American Derbies, he is planning to win the fifth, and is confident that Cruzados will, bar accidents, land the event next year.

"Volante carried the Santa Anita colors to victory in 1893 and Silver Cloud performed the feat the following year. Baldwin would have made it three straight if he had not tried to win with Goliath in 1887 instead of his stable companion, Miss Ford. It will be remembered that Goliath made a poor showing, while Miss Ford was beaten a scant head by C. H. Todd, a despised outsider in the betting. Emperor of Norfolk captured the Derby in 1888 and now Baldwin intends to pull down the rich event with a son of the 'Emperor.' Cruzados can certainly make a show of any of the youngsters now racing in California at the customary distances for two year olds. Rey del Carredes could do the same thing in his two-year-old form, but like the great majority of extremely fast horses he found the Derby route too far. Nothing that Emperor of Norfolk has yet sired has shown a liking for a distance, but Cruzados may prove the exception. There is no question about his wonderful speed, still he has not yet beaten any colt with any great pretensions to class. He is a slashing looking youngster, and if it is afterward proved that he lacks stamina and staying qualities he will still be a valuable animal for sprinting purposes. Cruzados is as fast, if not faster, than Rey del Carredes was in his two-year-old form. He is in the pink of condition at present and can perform over any kind of a track.

"Trainer Speirs says that no price has been placed on Cruzados, although several men representing Eastern turfmen are anxious to secure this fast son of Emperor of Norfolk. Cruzados is to be the star of the Santa Anita stable that will be sent across the mountains next April or May, although there are a number of other likely youngsters in training from the Baldwin ranch.

"The San Francisco public is gradually, if not gracefully, becoming reconciled to the $1.50 admission. The game has picked up in wonderful style in the past week, and is fast assuming the proportions of former seasons. There has been a wholesale cutting down of guest and complimentary badges, and this has raised a storm of protest in certain quarters. As a matter of fact, badges in the past have been given to scores of people who had no legitimate right to any courtesy. Still the closeness of the management in this connection is a good thing for the makers of hand books at down town cigar stores.

"Johnny Campbell, after many ups and downs, has opened up a public training stable at the Oakland race track. Campbell would have been immensely wealthy if he had not dabbled in Wall street stocks. No trainer in the country has pulled off more big coups than this same Campbell. Six times he has won over $100,000 to a race. Like many of the successful trainers of today, Campbell began life with the harness horses.

"It was he who drove Westmont and running mate to the world's record of 2:01, but he made his biggest winning with old Richball the day he beat Buffalo Girl at Chicago. Campbell was offered $25,000 if he would agree to lose with Richball, and he answered by going out and winning. It was not until 1886 that Campbell became identified with the runners. He started from New Orleans and worked up the circuit through the middle west. His first real success was with Jim Gray, but he has trained at times for some of the most prominent men connected with the American turf. He has handled horses for Colonel Ruppert, Marcus Daly and the Beverwyck stable. It was Campbell who trained Diablo and Castaway, when at long odds they annexed the Brooklyn Handicaps in their respective years. He came within a head of winning the Suburban with Cassius. He stood to win several hundred thousand dollars on that race, getting long odds in the winter books. Campbell also captured the Metropolitan Handicap in 1892 with Passara and the Futurity with Ogden. It will be seen that few trainers have won more classic races than old John Campbell.

"There is some feeling between a number of California trainers as to the advisability of breaking race horses to the sulky. Old Man Weber, father of the jockeys Johnny, Charley and Joe, introduced the idea into California, having had some success years ago at Jerome Park with Woodflower, which he secured from Plunger Walton. At all events, a number of horses were broken to sulky and many have scored winning brackets already this season. Among the sulky horses are Evea G., El Rio Shannon, Lizzella, La Goleta, Galanthus, Essence, Articulate and Reina de Cuba. Among the staunchest advocates of giving race horses preliminary training in the sulky are Dr. Rowell, W. J. Speirs, John Weber and Jim Coffey."

RACERS AT AUCTION.

Winner—Br. c. by Lissac—Emily. Went to post at 2:40. At post 21 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Postillion ran a fine race under a vigorous ride, got up in the last sixteenth and fought it out gamely with Dolce Far Niente. The latter was in close quarters at the finish and Lyne could not do him justice. Lingo ran well under poor handling. Marie Bell showed speed, but weakened when challenged. Kaloma finished strongly from a poor beginning. Lou Woods was never a real factor.

Winner—B. h. by Melodrama—Impression. Went to post at 4:03. At post 11 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second driving. B. G. Fox, under hard pressure, was made to last long enough. He showed plenty of early speed and was off well in motion. Andes lost much ground in the stretch by swinging wide. He finished strongly and would in all probability have won had the route been further. Petit Maitre had bad racing luck in the early stages and ran a winning race. Felix Bard was off tangled up, then raced up to a contending position, but the effort told and he weakened in the run home. Choice showed speed in the early stages but tired when strongly challenged. Schnell Laufer can do better. Free Pass ran impressively.

Overweights—B. G. Fox, 34 pounds; Eva Rice, 11. B. G. Fox, show, 2 to 1. Andes, show, 3 to 2. Petit Maitre, show, 6 to 5. Felix Bard, show, 1 to 2.

CHAIRMAN YOUNG'S STATEMENT.

Statement by Chairman Lawrence A. Young, of the Western Jockey Club:

"We have made some reinstatements and will probably make more. This will be the policy of the Western Jockey Club to those who apply in good faith and who expect to remain adherents of the Western Jockey Club. We may make some mistakes, but, so far as I am advised, only one man we heretofore reinstated has abused the act of restoration by racing again on tracks not recognized by the club. We do not look for others to do so, but, of course, where it is done there can be no possibility of a second reinstatement. Such act of bad faith will forever bar the party from the Western Jockey Club."

AMENDMENT TO RULE 161.

Rule 161 has been amended to read as follows: Boys who never rode a winner and who have of their own free will and with the consent of their parents or guardians, bound themselves as apprentices to owners or trainers for a term of not less than three years by a written instrument, certified copy of which has been lodged with the Stewards of the Western Jockey Club, shall be permitted to claim a five-pound allowance in all selling races, excepting selling handicaps. They shall be entitled to this allowance for one year after being licensed as apprentices. Allowances under this rule must be claimed at the time of entry, and the owner shall not be permitted to waive such allowance except by consent of the judges.

Winner—B. c. by Deceiver—Start.

Went to post at 2:00. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won ridden out; second easily. Delmarch was tiring in the last few strides and had to be hustled to keep in front, but was the best. Adelaide Prince, a fresh horse, ran a good race and was gaining at the end. Land of Clover finished fast through the stretch. Elizabeth Moan showed speed, but seems to be a quitter. Kimberly ran a poor race under poor handling. Sir Eggs showed early speed, but is a bluffer. There was some crowding in the first furlong and Aminte fell down. Walker pulling Corder II. up to keep from jumping on Jones.

Scratched—29558 Whistling Con, 115; (29610) Zemora, 107; 29603 Rabunta, 104; 29606 Cornwall, 100; 29654 Missile, 100; 29610 Garter Ban, 99; (29582) Lady Teazle, 97.

Went to post at 3:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Carbuncle ran a fine race, making a new track record. Redfern was unable to control him, the gelding fighting for his head and outclassing his company at the weight. Shea made his run too soon with Turnmise, but the colt ran a good race. Dick Furber outstayed the remaining pair. Ringleader was used up in the first mile and quit badly. Rafaello was lame and was pulled up on the backstretch in the final mile.

Flora Pomona was going her best but lacked the speed to get up at the end. Death ran his usual honest race. Redpath got away badly and made up a lot of ground. Lamp O'Lee could not handle his weight and was outrun throughout although hard ridden. Sister Juliet ran a good race to the stretch but tired in the stretch run.

Mike Rice ran his race and was cleverly handled. Searchlight appeared unfit and did not show his usual speed. Casdale appeared to be short, but likes mud and should improve over this performance.
